

Alfred L. Seivold Jr.
Senior Examination Specialist
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
Division of Supervision and Compliance
Complex Financial Institutions Section

Mr. Alfred Seivold is a Senior Examination Specialist in the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) Complex Financial Institutions Section. He oversees all bank supervisory matters related to Advance Measurement Approach (AMA) implementation. He serves on several U.S. interagency committees, where he has actively participated in the development of the AMA framework and operational risk policy guidance, and is a member of the Basel Committee's Accord Implementation Group for Operational Risk. Additionally, he speaks on operational risk topics/issues both internationally and domestically, and has provided technical assistance related to Basel II policy and implementation in Asia, South America, and Africa. Mr. Seivold started his career in bank supervision with the FDIC in 1992, and has held a number of positions in the Division of Supervision and Compliance.

Mr. Seivold received his B.S. degree in finance from the University of Baltimore and is a graduate of the ABA's Stonier Graduate School of Banking.