

Alan D. Schwartz
Executive Chairman
Guggenheim Partners, L.L.C.

Mr. Schwartz has joined Guggenheim Partners as their Executive Chairman. Guggenheim Partners is a global, independent and privately held financial services firm. Mr. Schwartz is the former chief executive officer of The Bear Stearns Companies. During his career with Bear Stearns, he served as president and chief operating officer, as executive vice president and co-head of investment banking, and in other financial management positions. He previously worked in various capacities with Wertheim & Company and R.W. Pressprich & Company.

He earned a B.A. in management science from Duke in 1972. He is member of the Duke Board of Trustees since 2005, and has served as chairman of the Fuqua School of Business Board of Visitors and as a member of the Athletic Advisory Board.

Mr. Schwartz is Chairman of the Board of the Robin Hood Foundation. He also is a director of St. Vincent's Services, The National Mentoring Partnership, the American Foundation for AIDS Research, and New York University Medical Center.

Mr. Schwartz is married and has five children. He and his wife, Nancy, reside in Greenwich, Connecticut.

July 2009