

John V. Thomas

Current Position:

FDIC, Deputy General Counsel, Supervision Branch, 2007-present. In this position manages the Legal Division branch that deals with regulation and supervision of open banks, deposit insurance and other applications, and enforcement actions.

Previous Positions Include:

FDIC, Acting General Counsel, 11/08-1/09.

FDIC, Assistant General Counsel, Supervision and Legislation Section, 2003-2007.

FDIC, Associate General Counsel, Receivership Goodwill Section, 1996-2003.

FDIC, Associate General Counsel, Professional Liability Section, 1988-1997.

FDIC, Counsel, Open Bank Litigation Section, 1985-88.

Antitrust Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Litigation Attorney.

Donovan Leisure Newton & Irvine, Associate.

University of Toledo College of Law, Assistant Professor.

Education:

Yale University Law School, LL.B.

Indiana University, B.S.

Bar Admissions Include:

Bar of the State of New York

Supreme Court of the United States

Various other Federal Courts