

STATE STREET BIOGRAPHIES

Maureen J. Miskovic
Executive Vice President
Chief Risk Officer

Maureen J. Miskovic is executive vice president and State Street's chief risk officer responsible for leading the company's risk management function globally. She is also a member of the company's Operating Group, State Street's most senior strategy and policy-making team.

Before being appointed to this role, Ms. Miskovic served on State Street's Board of Directors and was senior advisor at Eurasia Group, a global political risk advisory and consulting firm based in New York.

Previously, Ms. Miskovic spent six years as chief risk officer for Lehman Brothers and prior to this appointment she was Treasurer at Morgan Stanley in London responsible for capital planning, bank relations and cash management for its European and Indian businesses. She has also held senior management roles at S.G. Warburg in London. In addition to her State Street board appointment, Ms. Miskovic also served as a member of the board at NRG Energy.

Ms. Miskovic has published a book entitled "Futures and Options – A Handbook for Institutional Investors" and serves as an honorary member of the Leadership Council of the Betty Ford Foundation. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Russian and German from King's College, London University.

In June 2009, The Boston Symphony Orchestra welcomed Ms. Miskovic to its Board of Overseers for an initial three-year term.

