

Marcus Cree

Director of risk solutions, SunGard Capital Markets and Investment Banking

Marcus Cree is the director in charge of client solutions for North America, for Capital Markets Trading and Risk. This is the latest iteration of Marcus's SunGard career, which has seen him work in the implementation team for the Adaptiv risk product as well as part of the solutions team in Europe. Before joining SunGard, Marcus has worked in the risk control unit for Deutsche Bank, the implementation team of Misys and as an analyst for a UK based stock broker. As well as AIMR qualifications, Marcus holds a degree in mathematics from Leicester University.
