

KAREL ENGELEN
Policy Director and Head of FpML
INTERNATIONAL SWAPS AND DERIVATIVES ASSOCIATION, INC.

Karel Engelen is the Head of FpML at the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. (ISDA). He is responsible for the integration of FpML within ISDA and for the further development of the FpML standard. As Policy Director, he oversees Credit Derivatives activities globally and North American Operations activities.

Mr. Engelen joined ISDA in February 2001 from Dexia Bank. He worked two years in Dexia Bank's New York branch as head of the Systems and Middle Office Department. Prior to this, he spent five years at Dexia's headquarters in Belgium in IT development on various projects for financial markets.

Mr. Engelen received a Master's Degree in applied economics, magna cum laude, from the University of Leuven, Belgium.